“ I will always have the memories of halloween and you dressing up as an identical twin of Boy George, your infectious laugh, and your tenacious fight and drive to kick cancers ass. It was a tireless exhausting battle now you can rest. It was a brave fight Laurie now you can wrap yourself in your moms arms and know youll never be in pain again. we will meet again my friend so until we do I love you and miss but will never forget you.

“ Laurie was such an amazing friend to me in our school days, we had so many laughs that well thats how I will always remember her laughing and telling me I was a nut! We attended food service together along with Annie, Alexis and Tami. We were like the 5 musketeers. I will never forget those fun filled days and will cherish them all my life. Thank you Laurie for your kindness and friendship. And our love for the scorpions lol! May you rest in peace my dear friend love ya&10084;&65039;
