“ Validated just today that my dear friend of many years has passed. Linda and I worked together as office clerks in the old "Super Duper" supermarket in Tonawanda, NY. then after that in another supermarket in North Tonawanda for a while until life took her to Texas. We stayed in touch and every time she came back to NY, we spent our time catching up. I loved her for her great smile and uplifting personality. She always made me want to be a better person. She was smart, kind, and always looked on the better side of life. Her personality was direct and organized. I remember when she would come into work (by the way, NEVER early!), the first thing she did was sharpen all the pencils (for real) and straighten out the papers on the desk! I loved that she was adventuress and wasn't afraid to go anywhere by herself and I can't forget her love for all things Disney! These are just a few of my thoughts about my dear friend who I will sorely miss. To all of Linda's family, my deepest condolences.

“ It's been over a month and I'm still mourning the lost of my dear coworker, she was such a jewel. Funny thing happened these past two weeks, went to South Carolina to Charleston was about to board a sightseeing boat tour and a lady entered the boat just before me and resembled Linda so much, it actually gave me peace in my heart. Today I made some copies and she instantly came to mind, as the copier was where she spent a lot of her time at work and she always helped me fix all my jams. We spoke often, so I'm grateful for the unity we had. Rest in peace my friend! Gloria 🙏💜

“ I have known Linda since she joined the NTTA 20 plus years ago. We always had a small chat and laughter when we see each other. I will miss her thoughtfulness and a pretty smile but will always treasure our conversation in my heart. Last week, I heard that she was ill, my heart sunk; I asked if I could give her a hug but was told she was moved out of Texas, my heart is broken into piece! May your Soul Rest in Heaven, Linda!

“ The way Linda showed compassion, kindness and generosity was truly amazing. She put others first and always made sure to keep a smile and laugh that could be seen or heard from anywhere. Family meant everything to her and would light up when asked about them.

She was such a special person and will be missed by so many. I'm so grateful to have had her friendship for 15 years. Whenever I see a Snoopy or Charlie Brown, I can't help but smile and think of Linda!

My thoughts and prayers are with her family to provide comfort and peace.
