“ I remember when you came over to my house around halloween time a few years ago. We watched the Shining and walked along the river. You were always so calm and collected and never judged me (actually i don't remember you ever judging anyone). We had just spoke a few weeks ago when i reached out after seeing you standing outside the Tim Horton's on pine ave. We sent a few messages back and forth... It seemed like you were doing okay. Prayers to your family. I will always remember your kind heart Luke. Rest in peace.

“ Luuuuuuuukkke, oh how we cherish the memories of you and Justin as little kids. We always enjoyed spending time with you whether it was going to play Putt-Putt (we still have the scorecards) or play dates at our house, or even an accidental trip to Canada via the Lewiston-Queenston bridge 🥲.. You always had a special place in my heart and you always will.

Jess, Scott, Jarrod, Cathy and families, you're in my heart and on my mind. I cannot imagine what you are all feeling. Praying for peace for all of you. Sending love and hugs across the miles.

So sorry to hear of your loss. The hardest thing in life is to bury your child. It is a grief beyond compare. All your hopes and dreams just disappear. Years will go by and many will say that was a while ago. But it's everyday to you. The raw feeling will go always, the pain will slowly fade. But the memory will be everyday. So sorry, May the God of tender mercy give you the comfort you need during this time of sorrow.
