“ My love and prayers are with all my nieces and nephews. I send my condolences to you all. I loved Marion from the day I met her at 13 yrs old. She was such an inspiration to me as I grew up. I know how completely she loved her family and they her. Oh how greatly you will be missed sweet friend . Your beautiful smile will always be in our heart. You were the best mother I have ever known. Just look at that huge family you created. I can hear our Lord saying to you "Well done my good and faithful servant" I shall see you again one day dear Marion. Until then we will all keep our memories close.
