“ Coming from a large family we did share some fun times. I was the oldest of five sisters and a big job "teaching" them. We all loved playing out in the rain barefooted splashing away. Miss you sis, Rest in glorious peace. God Bless

“ It's special when two people, quite different, become good friends. They kinda "fill in the gaps" for each other. And that's what my relationship was always like w/Mary; we knew each other's moods, faults and quirks - and LOVED each other anyway! She had a way of looking at me w/a raised eyebrow and saying, "Oh, yeah? You sure about that?" And then laugh in a way that made us both feel better, more comfortable. I won't miss that laugh (unless dementia gets me) cause it's in my head & heart forever. I'm all out of friends like her now. Alice Lafferty
