Mary Lou chose to stay at home to raise her family. She loved being outside working in her yard, especially mowing her lawn and tending her flowers. She was an avid Buffalo sports fan and enjoyed attending musicals at Shea's. She also loved celebrating birthdays and holidays with her family. Alongside her husband Jack, she served as a Eucharistic Minister for many years at St. Albert the Great Church.

Everyone that knew Mary Lou will remember her as a kind and gentle soul. Her strength, which was inspired by her deep faith, far surpassed her size. Mary Lou had a quick wit which she maintained until Jesus called her home.

A private family funeral mass was said by Msgr. Francis Weldgen.
