“ You touched my life although I never had the joy of meeting face to face with you. I miss your humour, your intellect, your generous encouragement, and your fighting spirit. We have travelled similar Behcet's paths, although you had the tougher route to follow. I can only celebrate having known you via the internet, thinking of you gliding, like Cleopatra, on your hospital bed-barge, challenging the medical profession to "fix it".

One of my favourite poets, Dylan Thomas also advocated fighting back against illness: "Do not go gentle into that good night, rage, rage against the dying of the light."

With much affection Millie, and wishing your family peace. Kathryn x

“ The premature loss of Milly Niss is incomprehensible to us. We send our heartfelt sympathy to Martha Niss and to Jim Niss. Her accomplishments even despite her battle with Behcets are stunning. Her beautiful spirit shall always shine in our hearts and in the universe.

“ Dearest Millie, You will live on in the hearts and minds of your fellow Behceter's forever. Your contributions to the Behcet's community were many. You helped and supported so many of us on the Behcet-support Group. Rest in peace now, your pain and suffering is ended, but you will surely be remembered.
