“ I didn't really get to know my aunt Monica until the 1990s, when a variety of family members started taking vacations together - more than a dozen, between the beach and cruises and resorts. She was a genuinely nice, pleasant person who always did her best to make you feel welcome and happy. I will cherish those great memories of the family time we had together.
We will all miss her.

“ Our hearts are broken for this beautiful, loving soul who has passed much too soon. May her soul rest now in peace with those who have gone before her.
