“ Fillner ave will not be the same anymore with out Mrs.Avery. Tony so sorry for your loss . You where such a blessing for your mother. In return she gave you strength and pushed you to limits you never knew you had. Showed you how unconditional love can be she for that she raised amazing daughters and you turned out to be one of the most understanding of people I know. Sorry for your loss I know only time heals and I wish there was more i could do so if you ever think of anything let me know

“ Mr.Avery , "The Girls" and all other family members - Please accept my heartfelt sympathy during this very sad and life changing time. May you all continue to feel the love that she so freely and naturally gave to each one of you and may it help you to find the strength and peace that you will need in upcoming days. Stay strong and united as a family...as family was always a huge part of her. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Shari Pollock
