Tribute Wall

ER

“ I met Nancy over the phone in 1970, thru a friend (Bob M. Pratt) while on my way to Viet Nam. Although I never met her personally, she gave me hope of coming back home alive. When I did, I lost track and have that nagging feeling of not being able to thank her for the moral support. My deepest condolence to her family. May the Lord embrace her soul and His light shine over her eternally.
