“ I am so very sorry to the Brick family and all friends. Our family's hearts are broken. You were such a wonderful, kind, happy, handsome, loving friend to us. May you and Tom be sharing all our wonderful memories together in heaven. I pray that your soul and spirit rest in peace our dear Pat. Thank you for all the great times we had together and for being such a true, wonderful friend. Love to you always and forever.

“ Had soo many amazing times as a kid riding 4 wheelers with Pat, and my father Dave. Chris brick, his son Chris jr. he had just seen us and stopped to talk Thursday's last week! What a heartbreaker!

That you pay for all the memories growing up, and thank you for making me terrified of snow mobiles at the age of 7. I'll never forget that day! Flyy high brother! You will be missed !
