“ Not one day goes by that I don't think about my grandparents. I try to remember something new every once in a while because as time passes memory fades and I want to hold on to every memory that I can. The hurt is still painful-time is not healing my wounds of their passing. I miss you both...so much.

“ To the DePaolo family, so sorry for your loss, he was a great, great man! I work at the McDonalds that Pat came into every morning for his coffee, he was always the first to be at the doors when I went to unlock them in the early morning, even if it was the middle of winter. He put smiles on everyone's face in that building, and was always offering donuts or cake or whatever they had brought in to have with his coffee. He will be missed always!

“ Dear Uncle Dom, Aunt Lorraine and the DePaolo Family,

We are deeply sorry to hear of the passing of Patrick. The "Ole Sarge" kindly provided us with a great deal of assistance while researching our book about the Ganson Street Tigers. We truly appreciated the time he spent with us sharing his military stories and photographs. Patrick was decorated for heroism and awarded the Bronze Star for his bravery during the battle for Bougainville Island in 1944. His service to our country will not be forgotten.
