“ RIP Pat

Always remember coming into the restaurant on Sat. on N.F. Blvd with Den. Pat would make us a great openfaced steak sandwich and wow! those fish fries on Friday. We always had a great time. He certainly could make you laugh. He definitely will be missed. God bless you Taggart family.

“ Who can forget Pat's passion for cooking? His soups were absolutely the best. His steaks were awesome. But the most important asset that Pat had was his "over the top" sense of humor. He and his culinary expertise will be missed. Condolences to his family.

“ Barb And myself are shocked! I am so sorry. all my best to his family whom I knew for years at Taggerts bar. The dart tournaments were always the most fun and Pat's 10 cent wing night will endure in my consciousness forever. He will be sorely missed.
