“ I am very sorry to hear of the passing of Paul. We shared many laughs through the years when I would run into him from time to time in town. Paul always had a great story to share. He was the kindest person and always had a smile. My deepest sympathy to his family, his friends and all who loved him. Rest easy Paul. Kim Froebel-Johanson

“ I am so sorry that I missed the obituary for Paul. I met Paul years ago through my late husband Ryan McNaughton who also was a friend of Dr. Bob's. Condolences to his family. "Blue Eyes" as we called him was a gentle , smiling, happy person that would light up the room when he walked in. I will miss seeing Paul around town but "Heaven "must be rejoicing seeing him there. “ In life we walk the earth meeting many people along the way, some in passing and others that change you. If you were lucky to know Paul you were blessed. He had a heart of gold and wisdom beyond his years. Nancy and family I am so sorry for the loss of your brother. God Bless you all.

“ Such heartbreaking news of our dear friend..Paul spent many holidays at our table, and shared so many "after church breakfasts" as well. Our hearts are broken with the passing of one of the sweetest, and most genuine people we know. We are blessed to have known him while he was with us, and now have to look forward to our eternity with him in Heaven. He loved Jesus and it was clear to everyone what his faith meant to him. Rest now in the arms of Jesus Paul....we will miss you and your sweet spirit. Our prayers will be with your family now....All Our Love

Pauly D, We met almost 20 years ago out in Williamsville. You were everywhere smiling, so to not have you now feels empty and not the same, and never will be. You were family. You were always there for us, going fishing, sitting all night around the campfire talking under the stars. Most importantly we could talk, be real and during a most difficult time you prayed with us. Thank you for taking the time and truly caring. Wish we could have one more day to just say goodbye. Please watch over us and give us strength. Miss you and pray you have peace.

Blue eyed Paul, such a shock. You were there for me when I first came around, always with a smile and encouragement. Then as we got to know each other we got to whine to each other in order to hear the message from each other. You are a special memory to me. Thank you for your service, fellowship and friendship. Have a wonderful journey. My condolences to your family and friends.
