“ This is a beautiful pic of my mom visiting us last summer in Silverton, CO. In front of The Christ the Shrine of the miners. She was in great spirits even out of breath, (@ 9,318 ft elevation.) We didn't know she was sick so it's especially a poignant memory.

“ Paula will always be remembered for her spunk, and no nonsense attitude! I met her many many years ago when her and Jim and the kids lived on Schenck St. We used to sit for hours and watch the kids play. Her kids meant everything to her. I can imagine how much she loved her grandchildren! My condolences to the family, and friends of this very special lady.
