“ I was very saddened when I heard of Bob's passing. He was always nice, always smiling. We played a little tennis back in the day - should say I wasn't much of a challenge for him... but he was always gracious! My sympathies to you all. He's one of those special people that I feel blessed to have known. God bless you all... Nancy Bolduc

“ The Williams' family back yard butted up against ours. It was always the Green's, Pane's, Williams', and Giambrone's. My childhood memories of the time are filled with joy, laughter and love. Bobby, may your new journey bring you peace. Smile down on the old gang. Jane Giambrone Parisi
