“ I was a neighbor of the Murphys. We lived across the street from each other. Paul and I are best friends seeing as our ages were closer. I remember a lot about Roger but my fondist memories are of deer hunting at Socks camp Boliver NY. I remember one Sunday morning the three of us had to go to Coutersport PA to meet with the game warden cause we shined a spot light just after midnight on a field on the road back to camp. We each paid a $20 fine and swore we'd never do that again. We had like 4 cop cars pull up to camp you'd think we robbed a bank. A lot of laughs afterward. Will always miss you Roger. God bless. Thinking about you Paul & Mary Jo & the Murphy family during your great loss.
