“ Our deepest sympathy to Julie, Jake, Andrew and Krista. Roger was a humble man who didn't look for any recognition and yet deserved so much for the outstanding dedication to his family, his work and to his country. We are thankful for his life and we are hopeful to meet with him in God's kingdom one day.

“ Julie- I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. I was lucky enough to meet Roger at the end of last summer and spent a few wonderful afternoons talking to him as we cheered the RED HAWKS on the field. He had already been through so much but he was a man with a renewed feeling of life and just enjoyed every moment he spent with his family! Hopefully all your happy memories together will carry you all through this very tough time.
