“ It is hard to express the sadness I feel at Rosemary's passing. She was such a good friend. I will always remember the good times we had. She loved her Buffalo Bills and New York Yankees. She loved to dance and loved Michael Buble's music. I will miss her so much.

“ Ro!...Ro! Rosemary was my first co-worker in ISSS and friend at UB! Her heart was huge and gold... open to everyone, especially the international students who cherished her for her authenticity, directness, kindness and boundless humor!! SO many memories and laughs over the years... You are sorely missed Rosemary, but your legacy lives on in our hearts, here in Buffalo, and around the globe.

“ I will miss you terribly Rosemary. We always joked about us having the same name, though sadly not related. 10:30 Mass will not be the same without you!!!

“Sad news travels far. We were so sorry to hear of Rosemary's death. She was a colleague and a friend. She leaves behind many happy memories for all who knew her. I (Joe) had the pleasure of working with Rosemary at UB for many many years. She aided and assisted many students from all over the world and was loved and respected by all.

“Rosemary was one of the few prominent UB staff and student advisor I met with when I first arrived in Buffalo. She was always a friend to all international students and imparted her love of the Buffalo Bills to all of us. After her retirement from UB, we volunteered together at Shea's Performing Arts Center. She will be dearly missed!

“Rosemary was the first person I met in Buffalo after I arrived as an international student. As an international student, the adjustment was not easy, but she made us feel good. She organized trips to the grocery store for the students with no car. She had such a great heart.

“ Rosemary was a mentor when we were on the board of the UB Campus Club years ago, and then a colleague when we both worked with international students. She had a huge heart and will be so missed. Sending peace to her family and friends.
