“ Darlings Marybeth, Regina and Janelle, I can only image how much you miss your Mom. Funny thing whenever I think of her I see her kind thoughtful smile. I have such fond childhood memories of our Cristiane Street summers and your loving parents. I am grateful for those. Sending lots of love to all of you and the kids. Kate

“ From the time I was about 5 into my teens our family would climb into my nonno’s car and drive the almost 300 miles to north Tonawanda for two weeks every summer. We made memories with all our 6th cousins including Rosemary. She was a few years older. Our grandfathers were cousins immigrating from Italy. I’ll always remember the times we spent on the porch on Oliver street or in the yard in the Ally. Thanks for the memories Rosemary rest in peace. Give our best to cugino snd all the cousins. Fran
