“ I was heartbroken to hear of Sandy's sudden passing. She was more than just a neighbor, she was a dear friend of our whole family. I will always remember Sandy's laugh, it was so infectious. Anytime I heard her laugh, I couldn't help but laugh with her. That joy was just part of who she was, and it wasn't uncommon for her to send a greeting card for any special occasion. One memory I'll never forget is our trip to Cleveland to see my sister off when she moved to California. It meant so much to have Sandy there. My sister was always like a daughter she never had. Sandy you will be dearly missed. Rest in peace. xoxo Michelle
