“ Mitzi and I send our deepest condolences on the loss of Sara. I never saw her without a smile on her face. We did not get to enjoy her company anywhere near what we would have liked, but we know how much she was loved. We only hope she is in a better place watching over us, and is with peace now.

“ Even as far away as I am, I will miss seeing Sara’s name in LII emails and other content, for she always brought a smile to my face when I was in the Buffalo Office and I could ask her anything. She was so sweet, very helpful and I really enjoyed seeing her at the Gym on her lunch break. My thoughts and prayers are with Sara’s family, friends and co-workers.
