

Scott D. Lickers

August 19, 1961 - August 8, 2023

Scott D. Lickers, 61, of North Tonawanda, New York, Tuesday (August 8, 2023) passed unexpectedly. Scott was born in Buffalo, New York on August 19, 1961 to Howard L. and Alice (Urbaniak) Lickers. He was a lifelong carpenter and professionally built Squash courts internationally, Scott took this opportunity to rock out at many concerts. Along with being a Master Carpenter, he was also a Grill-master (and pretty good at it). He enjoyed several lost weekends camping at Buffalo Hill, showing off those cooking skills for us kooks. An avid Buffalo sports team fan, he attended 3 Buffalo Bills Superbowl's (everyone remembers that one???). Scotty loved displaying his '67 'vette at car shows and loved the ponies (Dunkirk Derby, wink-wink). He was a member of the Tonawanda Clown Band Color Guard and Tonawanda Moose Lodge. Scotty was predeceased by his mother Alice (Urbaniak) Lickers, his brothers Bill and Mark Lickers, and is together again with His Girl and lifelong love, Valarie Snickles.

Scott is survived by his father Les and Alice (Miller) Lickers, Sister Trish (Tim) Himmelback, Goddaughter & Niece Ally (Michael) Grimaldi-Giambrone, also survived by Scotty's amazing stepfamily which included children, brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and his '67 Corvette.

Friends may call Wednesday August 16th from 4-8 PM at the Wattengel Funeral Home, 533 Meadow Drive, North Tonawanda. The interment will be held in Acacia Park Cemetery at 11 am Thursday August 17th. Bills, Hawaiian, and tie-dye attire is encouraged(strongly). Scott now joins all the crazy kooks on the other side, waiting for us.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to the Patricia Allen Fund: The Childrens Hospital of Buffalo.
