“ *My friend. No one ever could be the gentle, tough, thoughtful, necessarily mean , beautiful human being that you were.... You were the very best friend I've ever had - you had my back through all and vise versa.
I'll miss you Big Steph! No matter what cards we were dealt in life , we always leaned on each other- you always had an innate way to make myself/others hope. You toughened me.
Best thing that ever happened to me- Sylvia as well. She also had your back
The best man /human being that ever lived in my opinion!*

“ Uncle Steve was the favorite Uncle, never without a kind word or joke. I'm so sorry his grandkids and great-grandkids didn't get more years with him in their lives. My condolences to the whole family in your great loss.

“ *My heart breaks for you and your family Judi. And what a large family you have! I feel sad that I never got to meet your dad, but your feelings explain what a wonderful person he was.....a lot like you! May your dad rest in peace, and may you come to peace over his passing.
Much love, Terri*

“ All people are complex. My Dad stayed with me through some of the most difficult times in both of our lives. I love him so much for never giving up. I am glad we both got to enjoy "the calm after the storm. The last conversation I had with him was the best we have ever share. He was laughing and happy with the sound of children running around for a Christmas feast. He always stayed and he was always there. Something I saw recently said: The best remembrance is not offered in tears, but in sharing and spreading the love our loved ones shared with us. I love you, Dad. (I got your message, by the way.)

“ We have lost a wonderful man. He was always my favorite uncle and was always there when someone needed help.

If each person could be half the man he was the world would be a far better place.

It's comforting to know you're now reunited with the rest of the family in heaven. We will miss you Uncle Steve.
