“ I have just now learned of the passing of my oldest and dearest friend, Susie Lavelle! Since grade school, we have shared so much of our lives together through triumphs and tragedies, good times and bad. There are more memories of laughter, tears and unforgettable moments than I can count and they will remain with me always.

Even when our lives took separate paths, we somehow got together every tenth year and picked up right where we left off, our friendship remaining strong through the test of time.

Always there with a warm smile and arms wide open especially when it was needed most. I now realize just how much I took that beautiful friendship for granted, assuming she would always be there, and will forever regret that I didn't express my love and appreciation for her warmth and friendship more than I did.

She had a heart of gold, a positive attitude and would have given all she had if she thought you needed it. God, how I'd love to hear her laugh or see her smile just once more. A part of me has gone with her and I will cherish her memory until we meet again. As always, when we parted, her last words to me were, "Love you!"

A more true and trusted friend will not be found, where rivalry, blame and most of all, judgment, does not exist. I will miss you my dear friend, more than you'll ever know.

Love you Susie!

Patti

“ My prayers are with all of you. RP Lavelle was my step father, and Susie my step sister. Have wonderful memories of you all. Memories of family get together with all 13 of us when permitted. Even though Susie was not my natural sister, she still was my family and will be missed.

“ I took for granted that she'd always be there. I miss her and will keep her in my heart.

NEVER a time I needed her when she didn't come with a smile and a Mary Poppins attitude.
Love you Aunt Susie
