

Tatiana R. Moore

June 24, 1998 - July 8, 2020

Tatiana R. Moore, 22, of Wheatfield, New York, Wednesday, July 8, 2020

Tatiana Rose Moore passed away on Wednesday, July 8, 2020 after a courageous and lengthy battle with complications due to covid. She died peacefully surrounded by many family and friends. Tatiana was born in Nashville, Tennessee on June 24, 1998 to James Moore and Lori Salvatore. Tatiana is a graduate of Niagara Wheatfield High School and NCCC, where she earned her Associates Degree. She was proudly accepted into Buffalo State College where she aspired to become a social worker. Tatiana was the Director at the YWCA before and after school program at Thomas Edison Elementary School. She left a forever imprint on the hearts of these children. She also provided respite care at Heritage Christian Services for young adults with various disabilities, as well as working at their Club Adventure program where she taught them various life skills. Tatiana found her true passion when she joined In Good Company Productions. Not only did she perform in several of their musicals, she formed strong bonds with other cast members who eventually became her second family. Tatiana had a bigger heart than most and was willing to assist anyone in need. She was a kind and caring soul and those who got to experience it were truly blessed. She will always be remembered for being a second mother to her adored sister Madelyn and cherished the time she spent with all of her cousins.

Tatiana was predeceased by her beloved father, James W. Moore, her paternal grandparents James E. and Minnie Pearl Moore. Tatiana is survived by her mother Lori Salvatore, sister Madelyn Moore, and granddaughter of Andrew and Paula Salvatore, her loving Godparents Rose Salvatore and the late Barbara Crisman, her lifelong best friend since preschool, Jenna Lucas, and her four-legged best friend Sophie. Also survived by many dear aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to In Good Company Productions at PO Box 25, Tonawanda, New York 14150. Friends may call Tuesday from 4-8 pm at the Wattengel Funeral Home, 533 Meadow Drive, North Tonawanda, New York. Face masks and social distancing required. Due to current occupancy limitations you may experience a delay in entering the building. The immediate family will hold a private service for Tatiana at 3pm prior to the viewing. You may partake in this ceremony via the facebook live at the Wattengel Funeral Home's facebook page. www.wattengel.com

“ My heart broke when I heard of Tatiana's passing. Tatiana was a student in my art class at Niagara Wheatfield High School. She was such a lovely and caring young lady. Many students you don't remember over the years, but Tatiana stood out. She was always a joy to see during the day and such fun to work with. She always put a smile on my face. She also had such a close bond with her sister, Maddy and talked of her Mom as her best friend. She will leave a hole in everyone's life. I can only imagine the sadness felt by Maddy and her Mom. My very deepest condolences to all. We now have a very special angel watching over us.

“ Tatiana was my son Charlie's afterschool teacher at the Y. She helped him grow emotionally, and truly empathized and supported with him when the days were long and he wanted to be picked up. I knew he was in such good hands with her and the rest of the staff. I was so happy for her when she took the lead role there. On the last day there was school she helped me again, process the huge packet the kids were given in case they didn't go back to school. She was kind and caring. I am so, so sorry for your loss.

“ Please know that although I’ve never met Tatiana I have read and heard all of the wonderful attributes about your precious daughter. Tatiana touched so many peoples lives in her time here on earth and fought such a courageous battle - she was a very special girl and I will not forget her or her story! I am holding your family up in prayer 🙏

“ I'll Lend you a Child

*I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, he said.
For you to love the while she lives,
And mourn for when she's dead.*

*It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call her back,
Take care of her for Me?*

*She'll bring her charms to gladden you,
And should her stay be brief.
You'll have her lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.*

*I cannot promise she will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.*

*I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes
I have selected you.*

*Now will you give her all your love,
Nor think the labour vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take her home again?*

*I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,*

The risk of grief we'll run.

*We'll shelter her with tenderness,
We'll love her while we may,
And for happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.*

*But should the angels call for her,
Much sooner than we planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.*

by Edgar Guest

My deepest, deepest condolences and I pray for all those who loved Tatiana, and it seems like there were many. My mind cannot fathom the grief and devastation you are all experiencing. My love to you all.
