“ Growing up on Miller street and hanging with Chris , Mr.brandel (could never call him Tom) was pretty much a regular part if my life as well. I can honestly say that I never knew a less selfish more caring person. I always told Chris how lucky he was to have him (although he knew that). He always treated me as family. Even after all these years I would run into him at the bank and he always greeted me with that huge smile like running into me made his day. My heart and prayers go out to the Brandels. He was definitely one of God's greatest creations.

“ Worked with Tommy at Post Office. The picture of him with that big smile says it all. He was always smiling, joking around, and always filled with laughter. Tommy will surely be missed.

“ A few weeks back I was coming back from Budwey's when I passed an unusual site on Nash Road. Tom was in the middle of the front yard in a chair picking up what I could only think was sticks. Of coarse bonnie was in view as well. The yard is deep enough that you could only see him as you are driving by. it was too late to pull into the driveway. Because I had groceries I decided not to turn around. Never again will I let pizza getting cold or melting ice cream prevent me from spending just a few minutes to say hello to a friend. You never know if it will be your last chance... Till we meet again my friend
