Dear: Mom

The nurses say you only have hours to a few days left. So I wanted to write this to share with the world for you.

We didn't get to spend a lot of my childhood growing up together for what reasons I don't really care. The time we did get to share with each other I will lock up in the most sacred treasure chest of all. My memory bank.

I'm gonna miss the silly conversations, the chats with God that we shared together, and most of all I'm gonna miss you so much.

You had 72 years of life that have had such an impact on so many people including mine. No matter where you go you will always have me with you and I will always have you with me.

At 0020 I got the call from North Gate.

At 01:11 I sit here next to you knowing you are at peace and can put your woes to rest.

I can only think of one thing... enjoy your journey in heaven and I will see you again some day.

You will never be forgotten I love you with every part of my being. For now good bye MOM...

P.S.

put a good word in with the big guy upstairs for us.

Forever yours,

Glenn (your buddy)
