“ Christine, Brian, Alyssa and Kailyn,

Although I had only met your hubby/dad only for a brief moment, I know he must have been quite a guy~he left behind three wonderful kids and a beautiful wife (inside and out). I pray that your memories will bring you comfort and that your love for each other will bring you strength. May God bless you all and keep you in his care.

*With love,
Diane T.*

“ Christine,
We're so very sorry. Vern was honestly one of the most genuine, fun, kind people and truly invested father in all of our three sports together. At basketball games, baseball tournaments and especially when we spent all of our years in football together. Our memories will include our last visit together at our home watching our guys laughing together immersed in how to properly cook meat and of course all of the laughs and side coaching; esp the last baseball game at Amherst Vs. Will East when he straightened out the guy on the sidelines. Priceless memories of a great man. Will also remember how much he supported you working for me so many hours at Ambo. Picking you up all hours of the day or night without any complaints, with total support and admiration of his beautiful wife.
God bless. Love you all,
Joe, Margaret, Joey and Drew Kleinmann

“ I will always remember how well you took care of Jay while I was in the hospital having Jake. 7 days you put up with his "pinwheel song" and Barney songs. You my dear cousin, are loved greatly and will be incredibly missed. I want you to know, the way you talked about your children, made me bust with pride for you! Until we meet again, Vernie, love your cousin Janette

“ We have been family as long as I can remember, back to Wurlitzer Park days.. you were always a teddy bear in my eyes.. gave great hugs and smiles every time I saw you.. I will always remember how loving, kind and supportive you were.. You will be missed by so many but I know that you are welcomed into heavens gates with open arms by so many of our loved ones. Until we meet again Vern!!

“ I had Vernon in my English class at PJHS. He was very quiet, very polite and caring. It was a pleasure having him turn in assignments with a wink of the eye to me. Did not know if Vernon was confident of his work or helped himself to his buddy's work. Bless family.

“ Vern, my brother you were one of a kind. We became friends in High School and it stretched to present day. We were going to get together next time I visited WNY which is this May, but sadly I will have to drink a toast to you and relive memories. You went too soon my friend and will be sorely missed. May you Rest in Peace.
