“ I had the humble pleasure of knowing Vin as an RN working at Oishei Children’s Hospital. He always had a wave and a smile whenever I passed him in a hallway, or on my way to another area of the hospital as he was sitting at his post. I am shocked at his early passing and will truly miss his wonderful upbeat demeanor at work. God bless his loving soul. ❤️

“ To the Caito Family,
I am so sorry and saddened to hear of Mr. Vinny's passing. Almost daily while passing through Children's Hospital, he would sing Marvin Gaye's song to me "What's Going On" and I would chime back in soprano, What's Going On. His words were either top of the morning to you, what's happening, or have a good day. He even wished me a happy birthday a few weeks ago. He will be missed tremendously.
May the peace of God surround you Mrs. Caito and the Caito Family.
Rest Well Vinny!

I have always and forever miss our daily lunch at Work since he left Williams/Materion.

“ I was so sad to see that Vinny has passed. Vinny was my favorite boyhood friend growing up on the West side. We lived two doors away. He would kick field goals, and I would hold the ball, and he would retrieve my punts. I spent a lot of time in his yard and home. When we moved away I was so sad I couldn't say goodbye to him (I was 15 and he was 12). But I thought about him often. My condolences to Maria and Anna and the entire family.

“ There are simply TOO MANY MEMORIES to share. I have amazing recollections of Vin from every period in my life from childhood, through our teenage years, early marriage to Pat, child rearing...on and on. If you knew him for even one day you were a friend forever. Put in simple terms "He Won The Game" Even though his father passed away too young, Vin was lovingly surrounded by his mom and sisters, family and friends. He had the love of an amazing wife, was the dad to two equally amazing people and had an unlimited wealth of friends. He experienced life fully, experienced the highs with joy and endured the lows with class. Even though he's no longer with us physically, Vin Caito will never be out of our hearts

A true friend, great husband, father and brother. 47 years of knowing you wasn't enough Vin! Thanks for always "getting the guys together" whenever I came home on leave or vacation since I left in 1978. Thanks for including my father as well. Getting to know you and Patti through the years was a joy. Your marriage was a testament to love and the love your children show is a testament to you two being wonderful parents. So sorry Patti, Dayna, and Vin. See you on the other side my brother. Love, Frank & Andrea
