“ I felt very blessed to be his God daughter. I remember when he had his open heart surgery he told me his heart was on the table for me. The best was when I went to Fla. With a friend. He and marion came to visit for a day. They left and called me 15 minutes later and said they bought corn on the cob and were coming back. They stayed for a week. We spent the whole week at the bar across the street. (Big surprise). I also remember they did alot of extra garage saling to be there for our wedding. We will meet again someday.
