

Wendy (nee Urban) Bugyi-Sanderson

March 30, 1956 - December 13, 2024

Wendy (Urban) Bugyi-Sanderson, of North Tonawanda, passed away peacefully on December 13, 2024, after a courageous battle with a brain tumor, surrounded by her loving family.

She was the beloved mother of Amanda (Bugyi) Farris, Michael (Sharon) Bugyi, Stephen (Hillary) Sanderson, and Elizabeth Sanderson; cherished grandmother of Austin Simon and Hailey Farris; Izsak, Mason, and Gavin Bugyi; Claire and Gabriella Sanderson; and proud great-grandmother to Kyle Shaffer.

Wendy was the devoted daughter of the late James (Joan) Urban and the late Betty Lou (Wayne) Lovett, and the loving sister of Joann (Edwin) Gampp, James (Sally) Urban, and Nancy (Lawrence) Brady. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Wendy was a kind, caring, and selfless woman who dedicated her life to helping others. As a skilled and compassionate RN, she served in hospitals, doctors' offices, and patients' homes, always ensuring those in her care felt supported and valued. Beyond her career, Wendy had a deep love for animals and was a passionate advocate for their welfare. Whether caring for humans or animals, her nurturing spirit shone through in all she did. Her sense of humor was unmatched, and her infectious laughter brought joy to everyone around her.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Wendy's memory to the Ten Lives Club or Roswell Park Cancer Institute, causes close to her heart.

Visiting hours will be held at Wattengel Funeral Home, 533 Meadow Drive in North Tonawanda on Saturday, December 21, at 10:00 AM, followed by a brief service at 11 :30 AM.

“ Please accept my most sincere condolences to you and your whole family for the loss of your mother. I know this must be a very difficult time for you. Wendy was a wonderful person and such a great coworker. Not a day would go by that she didn't have us laughing at one of her jokes or comments. She will be forever missed.

“ I had the great privilege of working with Wendy. She made going into work something to look forward to everyday. Her quick Irish wit was always on and too many times to remember had us all doubled over in laughter. She was smart, caring and compassionate which made her one of the most amazing nurses I've ever met. I feel extremely privileged to have the honor of being her friend. I will always love her for the memories she gave me and letting me into her life. My heart is broken. I can't even imagine how hard it is for all of her family. Love you Wendy and I KNOW I will see again one day. Your friend Joan xo
