“ Mr. Kern was an excellent teacher whose good humor and kindness always accompanied the lessons. I remember him often, and send my condolences to his family. I know this comes late, but I remembered him again today and decided to find out what became of him. I am sorry for your loss.

“ *Bill- a/k/a Uncle Bill,
I will miss our "manly" handshakes each time we would meet to see who had the better grip. You usually won.
I am glad you are reunited with Roseanne again. I'm sure she is shouting at you: "BILL, GET IN THE CAR. LETS GO SHOPPING!"
Your quiet wit and humor brought a much needed element to our family. You will be missed.
Au revoir, Bill*
